SUPPLEMENT TO

The Bombay Gazette.

BOMBAY:—SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1881.

THE NORTHBROOK INDIAN SOCIETY.

The following is the circular referred to in connection with this Society in our London Correspondent's last letter :—

Committee :—Rt. Hon. the Earl of Northbrook, G.C.S.I., Chairman ; Rt. Hon. Sir A. Hobhouse, Q.C., K.C.S.I., C.I.E. ; Sir R. Temple, Bart., G.C.S.I., C.I.E. ; Rt. Hon. Sir Bartle Frere, Bart., G.C.S.I. ; Colonel Keatinge, V.C., C.S.I. ; Sir R. H. Davies, K.C.S.I., C.I.E. ; Sir B. H. Ellis, K.C.S.I., W. G. S. V. Fitzgerald, Esq. ; F. R. S. Wyllie, Esq., Hony. Treasurer.

This Society and Club have now been in existence for more than a year, and the Committee can look back with satisfaction upon what has been achieved with the small means at their disposal, despite the great disadvantages arising from the fact that the existence of the organization and its objects are yet but imperfectly known in India.

The Committee consider that the experiment has proved the advantages and importance of the movement, and they feel assured, that if liberally supported by the Natives of India, a large increase of the work it has undertaken, and development of its sphere of usefulness may be confidently looked for.

Their main object is to provide a system of guardianship for young men of good family or position in India, sent to England for education. The want of such a safeguard has been much felt by parents in India, the only being one that could only be surmounted by the few parents who happened to have friends in England willing to undertake what must always be an onerous responsibility.

To the promoters of the movement a remedy for this state of things appeared the more necessary when the intention of Government was made known to employ Natives more largely in the administration of the country, believing as they do, that the best qualified for such employment is a more extended knowledge than can be obtained in India. They feared not only to assist young men to qualify themselves for the career thus opened for them, but to encouraging parents to educate their sons in England in order that Government in carrying out and extending their present policy.

That there is a desire on the part of parents (and guardians) to obtain for their sons the advantages of an English education under competent direction is shown by the fact that Mr. Fitzgerald, of the India Office, has at this moment five wards under his care ; Mr. Moore, late Judge at Allyghur, has two, but with their other duties and avocations it is impossible for these gentlemen to multiply their responsibilities to any considerable extent, and it is only by some such machinery as is proposed by the Society, that any large increase to the numbers of young Natives now sent can be anticipated.

The Committee have had one student under their direct supervision during the past year, and it is gratifying to know that in his case, as well as in the other instances referred to, the results have been most satisfactory.

The Committee, in connection with the above scheme, considered that a Club, where Natives of India and Englishmen could meet in social intercourse would be of the greatest service in the furtherance of the objects they had at heart, and accordingly founded more than a year ago, the "Northbrook Indian Club." The first annual report is appended.

As they did not ask for large subscriptions until the experiment had been proved to be successful the subscriptions were limited to 100 rupees, and the Club was placed as a tentative arrangement in John Street, Bedford Row. They think, however, that its utility has been proved by the degree of support which it has already obtained, and they ask assistance from the Indian people for improving the prospects of the Club, as well as for the other objects of the Society.

In addition to the more special work already referred to the Committee have rendered all the assistance in their power to Natives of India applying to them, and their Secretary, Capt. McNeile, has upon several occasions been able to be of the greatest service to Indian gentlemen in very serious difficulties.

The funds up to the present have amounted to £388 8s. 6d., which sum has been subscribed in the following proportions :—

In England	£66	1	0
„ Bengal	157	16	4
„ Madras	9	16	4
„ Bombay	354	14	10

The expenses up to Dec. 31st were £505 16s. 2d. The items of which were :—

Furnishing Club	£200	12	2
do. Office	13	16	0
Rent	137	10	0
Secretary's salary	67	0	0
Office sundries	77	18	0
	505	16	2
Balance in hand	82	12	4
	£388	8	6

It will be seen, therefore, that if the work is to be carried on, even on the limited scale of the past year, further assistance is required. The Committee hope, however, that the advantages and importance of the institution will commend themselves to all classes, and they confidently appeal to the Princes and people of India to help them to develop and extend an organization which they trust will be highly conducive to the true interests of that country.

What is now required is to establish the Society and Club in a suitable locality and building. It would also be desirable that a small funded income should be provided to make the Society to some extent independent of yearly subscriptions, thus establishing it on a permanent basis, and removing the danger of pecuniary embarrassment.

For these objects, the Committee consider that a sum of £10,000 would be necessary, and they invite the assistance of every one, the Queen-Empress who has at heart the true interests of the people of India.

M. GAMBETTA IN THE PROVINCES.

TOURS, AUG. 4.

M. Gambetta left Paris this morning at 8-40 and arrived here at half-past 12. Along the route there were none of the speeches and enthusiastic demonstrations that characterized the journey of the President of the Chamber of Deputies to Cahors, when immense crowds were congregated at the stations of Etampes, Orleans, Blois, and Tours in spite of the advanced hour. M. Gambetta having arrived at 3 in the evening, and when at midnight he had still to receive the deputations of friends in the provinces. This time, although the journey has taken place in the daytime, the inhabitants of Etampes, Orleans, and Blois have not troubled themselves to congregate at the stations. M. Gambetta, however, travelled this time in a more modest way. A single saloon carriage was reserved for him. He was not accompanied, as he was two months ago, by high officials and leading deputies. He had with him only M. Arnaud, his secretary, M. Joseph Reinach, and M. Hippolite Barthelemy, one of the writers of the Republique Française. M. Cochery, the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, who was going to Orleans, travelled with M. Gambetta to that station and was there received by a number of friends, who gave him a cordial welcome, while M. Gambetta remained in his carriage without being called to the carriage window. Only the railway servants remained on the platform, looking with curiosity and in silence at the saloon carriage of the deputy of Belleville. The indifference shown by his route was so great that M. Gambetta refused to alight and breakfast in the apartment which had been reserved for him by telegram at his own desire at Orleans, and ordered it to be served in his carriage. At Blois five persons in evening dress and a few troops and firemen were in waiting. They were the Prefect of the Department, the mayor of the town, and three municipal councillors. The interview was very brief. The Prefect entered the carriage and presented the boy, his son. After a conversation of three minutes the train started again. At St. Pierre des Corps a significant demonstration was expected. This station is the first of the Department of Indre et Loire, as Blois is the first of the Department of Loir. M. Gambetta's entry into the latter department was as much feted as his arrival in Indre et Loire was cold. The Prefect and the sub-Prefects were in attendance on the platform, accompanied by a most ten persons. M. Gambetta refused to alight, or even show himself at the window. The Prefect and sub-Prefects came on by the train to Tours. At Tours the platform was occupied by the band of music of an infantry regiment, the members of the municipality en costume, with M. Riviere, the mayor, at their head. Scholastic and judicial functionaries were also present. As to General Galliffet, the commander of the army at Tours, he did not appear. M. Gambetta is said not to have been surprised, and even to have expressed a desire that the General should abstain from welcoming him. M. Gambetta, it is stated, considered it imprudent on the eve of the elections openly to advertise his relations with a general who is highly unpopular among the advanced groups of the Republican party. Thus is explained at Tours M. de Galliffet's unexpected absences. On alighting, M. Gambetta was conducted into a vast waiting-room, decorated with flags, where M. Riviere addressed him as follows :—

"In the name of the municipality I welcome you. Ten years ago you came to us for the first time and in other circumstances. We were suffering at that time all the anguish of war, defeat, and invasion. In these days of prosperity Tours welcomes in you the former Minister of the Government of National Defence and the staunchest champion of French democracy."

M. Gambetta, having shaken M. Riviere by the hand, replied :—

"I thank you for your cordial reception and the very kind terms in which my honourable friend has referred to me. At the recollections you awaken in me I cannot help feeling a sharp pang. Yes, we had troubles and had much to endure together. Now, at least, I come back to you in the midst of the triumph of the Republic, at a time when all aspiration are permitted us at a time when we can count upon a future of national prosperity, of national reparation. I am glad to be again among you and to see you as 10 years ago united in the same feelings of sacrifice and devotion to the Republican Fatherland (a la patrie Republicaine)."

These words were received with great applause, and M. Gambetta, in uttering them was visibly moved.—Times.

IMPORTANT ARCHÆOLOGICAL DISCOVERIES IN EGYPT.

CAIRO, July 24.

Besides being memorable for the appearance of the comets, the year 1881 must ever hold a high place in the annals of Egyptological discovery. Monsieur Maspero, the recently appointed director of the Boulak Museum, is at the present moment in Paris actively engaged in preparing for publication the texts of the pyramids of the Fifth and Sixth dynasties, which were opened last spring at Sakkara. The forthcoming number of his "Receuil" will contain the entire text of the pyramid of King Ounas, the last king of the Fifth dynasty. But the saying that "it never rains but it pours" may be now fairly applied to archæological discovery. Long before the savants have had time to peruse, ponder over, or profit by the wonders unearthed at Sakkara they are now suddenly overwhelmed with a fresh supply of material in the form of the largest papyri yet known and by the apparition of the mummies, with all their mortuary appendages and inscriptions, of no less than 30 Royal personages. This discovery which has just been made calls for special interest in England, for among the 30 Royal mummies are to be found those of King Thutmes III. and of King Ramses II.—it was the former who ordered the construction of the obelisk which now stands upon the Thames Embankment, and it was the latter who, 270 years afterwards, caused his own official titles and honours to be inscribed upon its faces besides those of Thutmes III. These two monarchs now lie side by side in the Boulak Museum, and even the flowers and garlands which were placed in their coffins may to-day be seen encircling the masks which cover the faces of the deceased just as they were left by the mourners over 3,000 years ago.

Last June Daoud Pasha, Governor of the province of Keneh, which includes the ancient Theban district, noticed that the Bedaween offered for sale an unusual quantity of antiquities at absurdly low prices. The Pasha soon discovered that the source of their hidden treasure was situated in a gorge of the mountain range which separates Deir-el-Bahari from the Bab-el-Malook. This gorge is situated about four miles from the Nile to the East of Thebes. Daoud Pasha at once telegraphed to the Khedive, who forthwith despatched to the spot Herr Emil Brugsch, a younger brother of Dr. Henry Brugsch Pasha, who, during Monsieur Maspero's absence in Paris, is in charge of all archæological excavations in Egypt. Herr Brugsch discovered in the cliffs of the Lybian mountains, near the Temple of Deir-el-Bahari, or the "Northern Convent" a pit, about 35ft. deep, cut in the solid rock ; a secret opening from this pit led to a gallery nearly 200ft. long, also hewn out of the solid rock. This gallery was filled with relics of the Theban dynasties. Every indication leads to the conviction that these sacred relics had been removed from their appropriate places in the various tombs and temples, and concealed in this secret subterranean gallery by the Egyptian priests to preserve them from being destroyed by some foreign invader. In all probability they were thus concealed at the time of the invasion of Egypt by Cambyses.

Herr Brugsch at once telegraphed for a steamer, which on Friday last safely deposited her precious cargo at the Boulak Museum.

The full value of this discovery, of course, cannot as yet be determined. The papyri have not yet been unrolled, nor have the mummies been unwrapped. The following Theban Sovereigns are the most important of those whose mummies Herr Brugsch has identified :—

Ashmes I. (Amosis), 1st King of 18th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1700 (about).
Amenhothep I. (Amenophis), 2d King of 18th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1666 (about).
Thutmes I., 3d King of 18th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1633 (about).
Thutmes II., 4th King of 18th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1600 (about).
Thutmes III. (the Great), 5th King of 18th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1600 (about).
Ramses I., 1st King of 19th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1400 (about).
Seti I., 2d King of 19th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1366 (about).
Ramses II. (the Great), 3d King of 19th Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1333 (about).
Pinotem, 3d King of 21st Dynasty, reigned B. C. 1033 (about).
Raskhenen (Dynasty and date of reign unknown).
Queen Ra-ma-ka (Hatasou ?).
Queen Aahmes Nortert Ari.

Conspicuous by its massive gold ornamentation, in which cartouches are set in pricious stones, is the coffin containing the mummy of Maut Nedjem, a daughter of King Ramses II.

Each of the mummies is accompanied by an alabaster canopic vase, containing the entrails of the deceased.

Four papyri were found in the gallery at Dier-el-Bahari each in a perfect state of preservation. The largest of these papyri—that found in the coffin of Queen Re-ma-ka—is most beautifully illustrated with coloured illuminations. It is about 16 in. wide and when unrolled will probably measure from 100 to 140 feet in length. The other papyri are somewhat narrower, but more closely written upon. These papyri will probably prove to be the most valuable portion of the discovery, for in the present state of Egyptology a papyrus may be of even more importance than an entire temple, and, as the late Mariette Pasha used to say, "it is certain that if ever one of those discoveries that bring about a revolution in science should be made in Egyptology, the world will be indebted for it to a papyrus."

No less than 3,700 mortuary statues have been found which bear royal cartouches and inscriptions. Nearly 2,000 other objects have been discovered. One of the most remarkable relics is an armless leather tent, which bears the cartouche of King Pinotem, of the 21st dynasty. This tent is in a truly wonderful state of preservation. The workmanship is beautiful. It is covered with hieroglyphs most carefully embroidered in red, green, and yellow leather. The colours are quite fresh and bright. In each of the corners is represented the royal vulture and stars.

Fifteen enormous wigs for ceremonial occasions from a striking feature of the Deir-el-Bahari collection. These wigs are nearly 2ft. high, and are composed of frizzled and curled hair. There are many marked points of resemblance between the legal institutions of ancient Egypt and of England. For instance, pleadings must be "traversed," "confessed and avoided" or demurred to. Marriage settlements and the doctrines of uses and trusts prevailed in ancient Egypt, but the wearing of these wigs was not extended to the members of the legal profession, but was reserved exclusively for the princesses of the blood and ladies of very high rank.

It is curious to recall the fact that when Belzoni, in 1817, discovered at Bab-el-Malook the tomb of Seti I.—a tomb which has since been popularly called "Belzoni's tomb"—a fine sarcophagus in alabaster stood in the furthest chamber. This sarcophagus was subsequently brought to England, and it is now in Sir John Soane's Museum. Herr Brugsch has now brought to light the original occupant of this sarcophagus, who may now be seen at the Boulak Museum, near, his son, Ramses II.

Herr Brugsch assures me that he believes that there is another secret gallery leading from the pit at Deir-el-Bahari. When M. Maspero returns next October further excavations will doubtless be undertaken, but the Boulak Museum, so suddenly enriched as it has been during the present year, now occupies a position not inferior to any in Europe.—Times.

THE ENGLISH HARVEST.

Reuter's telegram about the rainy weather prevalent in England, corroborates private messages previously received in Bombay ; and it is to be feared that the English harvest will be much injured.

The following article from the Pall Mall Gazette shows what were the harvest prospects at the time of the departure last mail. It will be seen that, given fine weather for the harvest, fair crops were expected :—Instead of the late harvest which two months ago seemed inevitable we have one rather earlier than usual. Great anxiety is felt as to the results, as upon them depends the fate of hundreds, if not thousands of British farmers who are on the brink of ruin, and from whom the present harvest is the turning point. To such, another year of loss would inevitably involve bankruptcy, while a remunerative return may give them the means of at least holding on to see what another year will do for them. Those who have suffered most seriously from the depression are the farmers of arable land in England, and to most of these the yield and value of the cereals are of the first importance, although there are some, like Scott farmers generally, who attach at least as much importance, to the root crops. As for grass-land farmers we already know that the year is a bad one for them, as the hay crop is one of the shortest on record, though of excellent quality, and there is very little chance of a good second crop. The uncertainty lies in the out-turn of the cereals and the less important pulse crops.

Extended observation and a study of the very numerous reports from different parts of the country which have appeared in various papers indicate, with a far nearer approach to uniformity than usual, the general prospect of the crops. Nearly everywhere wheat is what is called a "fair standing crop," the straw being short and remarkably healthy, and the ears either of moderate size or rather small. A heavy crop is quite a rarity, and a very thin one nearly as much so. The hope of an average yield rests on the generality of moderately good crops and the absence of fungoid disease, laid corn, and misplants. We have heard scarcely anything of blight or mildew, and of insect injury there have been very few complaints except in relation to the red maggot, which is now said to be alarmingly abundant in some districts. This destructive grub, which devours the kernels of the wheat in a green state, is always to be found more or less, and especially in good harvests. The weather which is most favourable to the maturing of a fine yield and quality of wheat is unfortunately also most suitable to this pest. For this reason we are not disposed to attach much importance to the reports referred to. If the country should be favoured with fine weather for the next three weeks, we may fairly expect an average, or nearly average, crop of wheat of excellent quality. The recent tropical weather, which forced wheat and other crops to premature ripeness on gravelly soils, was well suited to the cold clays and dirt-drum band put down, and we have read of one cart with a drum, or two drums, coming under the notice of the police. But it seems as if nothing short of the "continuous discharge of cannon" in the heart of a city could "cause people to rush about in a most excited manner," and unite to stop the "minstraulxcie." But let juries, and magistrates, and police look to it. Tissue is not to be disintegrated with impunity in this way. If, instead of inventing ear-trumpets for helping us to hear sounds from a long way off, some at once sensitive and beneficent man will invent an instrument by means of which we could at will stop our ears to all sounds whatever, he shall have a statute in "London's central roar" which shall, if he pleases, be unveiled "ove minstraulxcie," and with continuous discharges of cannon.—Spectator.

BRIGANDS.

Dr. Johnson's definition of a brigand as "a robber, one that belongs to a band of robbers," scarcely covers the whole of the ground according to the modern conception. The term brigand is now restricted to those who capture persons of presumed wealth and influence and hold them to ransom. The practice is a very ancient one, and has not always been regarded with the aversion with which it inspires most people in the present day ; indeed, it was looked upon in former times as rather an honourable profession than otherwise, and was an especial favourite one with kings, feudal lords, and knights-errant in the middle ages. The captivity of our own King Richard in Austria cost him so heavy a ransom that, as Davies on Ireland tells us, he was thereby "hindered to pursue" the conquest of that country, which probably saved him a great deal of trouble. The Turkomans are perhaps the most incorrigible brigands in existence, for with them man-stealing is not merely the occupation of a few lolder spirits, it is the national industry of the race. But Greeks, Turks, Spaniards, and Italians produce the most systematic and well-organized bands, the members of which, instead of "fooling around" after stray travellers, or making raids into neighbouring districts, make things all comfortable in their own neighbourhood, and content themselves with an occasional captive, of whose ability to pay they have previously convinced themselves. The Greek brigands enjoy exceptional advantages. They generally work on or near the frontiers, so that the Greek and the Turkish Governments can mutually and with virtuous indignation repudiate responsibility in their acts ; at the same time they are always on good terms at or near headquarters in both countries ; for the pet nationality and the pet abomination of the Liberal party both possess people in their service who are more than suspected of bearing "an itching palm," and neither Athens nor Constantinople is too Asiatic in the point of official simplicity and honesty. It may be an exaggeration to suggest, as M. Edmond About does in his inimitable Roi des Montagnes, that joint-stock companies are formed for "exploiting" the brigand capabilities of the country, with agents and directors amongst the higher classes in the capital ; but it is certain that the brigands receive both information and aid from thence, and are able at times to make excellent coups. The case of Colonel Synge is fresh in our readers' memory ; and the manner in which his capture and the negotiations for his release were effected did credit to all concerned.

Great tact and judgment are required both in effecting a raid or capture, and in arranging for payment of the ransom. The brigands should by no means be too hasty in forwarding ears, noses, or other portions of their captives, even when the inevitable bargaining about terms drags rather slowly on. They should also remember that a deceased captive is worth absolutely nothing at all, and that shooting or hanging is only to be used as a last resort. On the other hand, the friends of the captive must neither be unduly anxious to come to terms, nor too dilatory in making an offer ; and, above all, they must be very careful to keep the military and civil authorities from interfering in the matter. Neglect of these simple precautions often leads to deplorable results for both sides. The terrible massacre of an English and an Italian Secretary of Legation, and of two English gentlemen besides, by the hand of brigands headed by the brothers Arvanitaki was a case in point. The brigands had received notice of the intended arrival of a large party of Cook's tourists on the field of Marathon at a certain day, but fate threw the party from the Legation into their hands instead. Lord Muncaster, one of the captives, was allowed to depart, in order to arrange for payment of the ransom, but owing to the bungling of the Greek authorities, and notably of a Colonel Theagenes, the soldiers followed the brigands, who at once killed and shot Mr. Herbert and Mr. Lloyd, while Mr. [illegible] Boyl were taken on to Skimetri, and put to death. The soldiers becoming infuriated, attacked the brigands, killing six, and taking two alive. Most of the rest were afterwards caught, tried, and executed at Athens, on which occasion so much popular feeling was exhibited, that the severed heads of the criminals were seized by the mob, and kicked about the market-place. The greatest indignation was expressed by the English Government, not only at the political corruption which made the brigandage possible, but at the blundering manner in which the affair had been conducted by the Greek authorities, which had led to such tragic results. The brigand trade is very brisk just now. On June 23 a Greek captain, owner of a brig anchored off Mount Olympus, went on shore, about a mile from a landing place where there is a guard of soldiers and was carried off by a band of brigands. They asked 2,000*l.* as ransom, which are incidentally told he cannot pay. A Turkish official was also captured some fifteen miles higher up the Gulf, and no news has been heard of him since. An Englishman in Spain, Mr. Lester, who was also taken prisoner, was more fortunate, for being left alone for a short time he actually gnawed his bonds asunder, and made good his escape.

But even when all is satisfactorily settled, the brigands have by no means so much the best of it as might be supposed. According to the old plan, when a British subject was captured, his friends paid the money, or, if they had not the means, the Home Government advanced it for them, and the bill was sent into the Greek or Turkish Government as the case might be. This again was cearly paid ; and the little outlay was recovered from the district in which the outrage took place. Here there seems to be some injustice. Some people have a theory that, if the inhabitants of a district choose to make it too hot to hold brigands, there would be no brigands there at all. Now your ordinary Greek, Turkish, Spanish or Italian peasant does not trouble himself about his neighbour's business, and if the said neighbour, spends his money freely, and is a good fellow and a good shot into the bargain, it is obviously not to his interest to interfere with such a neighbour's avocations. What does it matter to him that the Government has had to pay some few thousand lire ? So much the better for trade if it has found its way into his district. But when he begins to discover that the Government is bent upon recovering these lire from himself, an unoffending agriculturist, and that every coup which his gallant friend makes costs him personally a large sum of money, he gradually awakes to the fact that it is, after all, he himself who is robbed, and he makes his neighbour's life such a burden to him that he is glad to see [illegible] for more profitable fields of enterprise. Now this is hard upon the brigand who has been promised an amnesty and the peaceable enjoyment of his spoil, but finds himself hunted down by a worse foe than his natural ones the gendarmerie. He has obviously been unjustly treated, and he has no redress. That is to say, he has hitherto had none ; but the present British Government have just promulgated a measure which will remove the injustice, at any rate in the case of any of our fellow-subjects who may come within the operations of the brigand industry.

Lord Granville has this week addressed a circular to Her Majesty's diplomatic and consular agents abroad, informing them of the decision of Her Majesty's Government to make no pecuniary advances in future to ransom British subjects when in no public character in the event of their being captured by brigands. In this he forms all whom it may concern that the "Two recent cases of brigandage in European Turkey, which led to the capture of Colonel Synge and Mr. Suter, and their subsequent release on payment to the brigands of heavy ransoms advanced by Her Majesty's Government, have forced Her Majesty's Government to consider the principles which should govern their conduct in similar cases in future ; and they have come to the conclusion that where British subjects are captured by brigands, when in no public character, but in pursuit of their own pleasure or business, no advance whatever for the purposes of ransom should, under any circumstances, be made from the British Exchequer." Henceforth "British subjects who may be residing, or who may hereafter take up their abode, in any of the provinces of Turkey where brigandage prevails, do so at their own risk, and the Government not only will not undertake to make pecuniary advances to ransom them from the hands of brigands in the event of their being captured, but will not take any measures to relieve them from the dangers they may incur from a residence in Turkish territory. It is also expressly stated that the principle thus laid down applies to British subjects not only in the Ottoman Empire but in other countries. This is as it should be ; the brigand now knows that he has a fair field and no favour so far as British subjects are concerned, and will, if he is wise, be careful to ascertain the nationality of his intended captures before proceeding to extremities, for it would be awkward for him if he lit upon a subject of Germany and France or any other Power which does "undertake to relieve its subjects from the dangers they may incur from residence in the Turkish territory."

The additional clause which includes other countries as well as the Ottoman Empire in the edict, though obviously an afterthought, is very properly inserted. It would have been against the principles of the Government to sanction a kind of foreign bounty on Greek brigandage alone ; but, by according the same privilege to the marauding interests in the other countries, a sort of Free-trade right is extended to the latter. No doubt, also, the resolution was a wise one to come to from financial reasons, since a possible advance for the purpose of rescuing an Englishman from captivity or death would most likely have to appear on the Liberal Government's Budget, whereas the reimbursements by the Foreign Government might very likely figure on that of their successors ; and we know that the frugal economy of the Liberal party is one of its greatest claims upon the love and admiration of the people. British subjects in the Ottoman Empire and [illegible] there will think of a Government which, recognizing the existence of a great danger, and having in its hands a powerful means of averting it, deliberately abandons them to it without hope of aid or redress, rather than advance a few thousand pounds we do not pretend to say.

The Consular service is sufficiently costly, but it is well organized, and the Consuls are for the most part efficient and experienced men, able and willing to afford advice and protection to their fellow-subjects. Why they should be officially told not to relieve travellers and others from the dangers incident to residence in Turkish or other territory it is difficult to see, unless, indeed, it be that they are to devote their time and attention exclusively to commercial interests, for which, no doubt, the wealthy manufacturers will show their gratitude in the event of another general election. We have been accustomed to abrupt changes in our foreign policy, and we are growing used to the lowering of English prestige, especially in the East ; but to leave Englishmen at the mercy of marauding and murderous scoundrels, and to tell them that they must expect no help at all, if they are so imprudent as to reside or travel abroad "for their own business or pleasure," is a new departure for which, we must confess, we were not prepared. The insertion of the passage last quoted is, of course, a concession to the old prejudice that ambassadorial persons are to be considered sacred ; but we do not know how soon even this relic of international political superstition may not be swept away. In the meantime, let us be thankful that we have not fallen into the hands of brigands.—Saturday Review.

WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH OUR BANKRUPTS ?

The above is the title of a paper contributed by Lord Sherbrooke (the Rt. Hon. Robert Lowe) to the last Nineteenth Century. We quote the concluding portion of the paper :—

"It appears, then, that the law of bankruptcy has ceased to be required as a refuge from the harshness of the general law ; that it has been the faithful mother of chicanery and embezzlement ; and that against these and many other objections there is nothing to offer except the feeble semblance of equity exhibited by the empty show of a symmetrical dividend, the substance of which the Bankruptcy Court has long since abandoned. It seems to me that these considerations, joined to the fact that the Bill has been twice amended during the present reign, and is now about to undergo a third transformation, and to masquerade as a hybrid department of the State, have given us sufficient proof that the time is come when, as Hamlet says, we ought to reform it altogether. I venture to think that I have shown ample reasons why the Bankruptcy Court should no longer be a snare to us ; and that, having perplexed and disgraced our Statute Book, for several centuries it should perplex and disgrace it no more.

"If I am asked what I would put in its place, I answer without hesitation—Nothing. We have the common law of England purified from the barbarism of imprisonment for debt, and I cannot see that we require anything more except a measure, which the great facilities of communication make desirable on other grounds—a very considerable shortening of the Statute of Limitations. If you want to make or keep people honest, you should above all things avoid putting severe and drastic remedies in the hands of the creditor. It is quite reasonable to trust a man for his wealth, his ability, his honesty, or his industry ; but every day's experience shows us that nothing is so unsafe as to trust your money to the fear of disgrace or punishment. The effect of such a law would, I believe, be most salutary ; with nothing but the estate of the debtor to look to there would be fewer bad debts ; trade would be more safely and therefore more profitably managed ; and the ridiculous notions as to the peculiar wickedness alternately imputed to borrowers and lenders would be once and for ever exploded.

"We must elect between the shadow and the substance, between an illusory equality which eats the oyster up in expenses and presents the creditors with the melancholy equality of the shell, and the rude and imperfect justice which pays the most importunate or perhaps the most favoured creditors in full, and leaves the less diligent a little worse than they would have been under the attenuating system of bankruptcy. Equality is a good thing when it produces justice, but the most ardent stickler for equality may well be startled when he finds that the first step in the equal division is to appropriate the lion's share of the property in dispute not to the creditor but to the ministers of justice. We have, as it seems to me, gone long enough on this ruinous system, and, with all respect to the Board of Trade, I see no reason, either in the ingenuity or the novelty of the plan laid before us, to lead me to suppose that a different fate awaits it from that which has overtaken so many of its predecessors. The causes which have generated these repeated and ruinous failures are still in full activity, and I cannot doubt that it is better to submit to inequality than to waste the fund out of which payment might be made to somebody who has a title to it in order to bestow it on officials who have no claim to it at all. First-born of things divine, equality may be a good thing. But even gold may be bought too dear ; and I cannot help thinking that equality becomes a curse when in order to attain it you are called upon to [illegible] strangers who have no claim at all the very thing which it is desired to equalise.

"Certainly, if we want a witness of the utter and total break-down of the bankruptcy law, we cannot find a better than Mr. Chamberlain. He says it is a history calculated to depress and discourage. He complains of continual changes, vacillation, and disappointment. There are thirteen proposals for amendment, and six Government bills have been produced, but none carried. The present law gives facilities for evasion, extravagance, and delay. We lose by the bankrupt law, he tells us, 25,000,000*l.* a year. His evidence is very valuable as coming from a successful trader and a minister having all kinds of information at his command. If we are startled at the magnitude of the evil, we may well be even more terrified at the remedies which, mutatis mutandis, are to put an end to disorders so deep and far-reaching. The bankrupt estate belongs to the creditors ; who doubts it ? They should have full control ; but have we not abundant experience that to give them control is of small avail unless there is undivided responsibility will impart what he has hitherto firmly denied to our prayers—the will and the strength to use it ? Then he proposes independent examination and punishment, and we might be disposed to hope something from it if it had not repeatedly been tried and failed. The truth is, that repayment on any considerable scale through the bankrupt law is a patent and thread-bare delusion. It is condemned in a few very homely aphorisms. "Prevention is better than cure." "It's no use crying over spilt milk." "Rather lock the door before the horse is stolen than after." You cannot call back what is lost, but you may make it less by bankruptcy. It is better that debts should be paid unequally than that the property should be destroyed in the effort to ascertain an equality which yields a purely metaphysical and imaginary satisfaction to the thirsty creditor."

PETER MOLLER'S COD-LIVER OIL

Has during the last Twenty years been selected from all other known brands by Fourteen different Juries at as many International Exhibitions as the only perfect Oil extant. Other Oils of imperfect make are mixed with essential Oils, fruit ethers, or emulsive agents in the endeavour to bring them as far as possible up to the same degree of tastelessness, digestibility and therapeutic virtue as Moller's Oil. These expedients, however, only prove the original imperfection of the Oil perfected in such a way.

AT ALL THE EUROPEAN AND COLONIAL EXHIBITIONS, where MOLLER'S Cod-Liver Oil has been exhibited, the Highest Honours were awarded.

W. DOMETT STONE, ESQ., M.D., Physician to the Dispensaries, &c., writes :—"'Moller's Cod-Liver Oil' is, in my opinion, unquestionably the best, immeasurably superior to the Brown Oil—more palatable, and far more efficacious."

Steam Manufactories, Lofoten Islands ; Offices, Christiania and London. Sold only in capsuled bottles, by all Chemists, Storekeepers, and Godowns.

Protected under the "Trade Marks Act" (3 and 39 Vict., ch. 91.) Enacted by the "Queen's Most Excellent Majesty," 20th August, 1875.

HEALTH, STRENGTH, AND ENERGY.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

Discovered and so named, A.D. 1862, by R. D. LALOR, M.D.

To residents in India, China, and the Colonies it will prove invaluable as a Reliable Liver Tonic and a Vitalising Restorative.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is a Pure Solution of Phosphorus, pleasant in flavour and appearance, being a perfectly Bright Liquor, combined with Vegetable Alkaloids, possessing marvellous Curative Properties, the Wonder of Modern Chemistry, free from all Dangerously Active Drugs ; innocent in its action, and pronounced by the highest Medical Authority to be unequalled for its power in replenishing and elaborating the Vital Fluid of the Body ; by its supplying all the essential constituents of the Blood, Brain, and Nerve Substance ; and for developing all the Powers and Functions of the System to the highest degree, thereby checking all wasting of the Vital Fluid, and the more Exhaustive Waste and Decay of Life resulting from Overtaxed Energies of body or mind, maintaining also the Integrity of the Brain, Nervous, and Muscular Systems which renders the Mind Cheerful, Happy, Brilliant, and Energetic.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

Surpasses all the known therapeutic agents of the present age, for the Speedy and Permanent Cure of all Derangements of the Nervous and Blood Systems.

Nervous Prostrations, General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Incapacity for Study or Business, Noises in the Head and Ears, Loss of Energy and Appetite, Nervous Debility in all its Stages, Softening of the Brain, Paralysis, Pains in the Back, Affections of the Kidneys, Urinary Deposits, &c., Asthma, Scrofula, and Skin Diseases, Wasting or Withering of the Muscles, Impure and Impoverished Blood, Premature Decay and all morbid conditions of the system dependent upon the deficiency of the vital forces arising from whatever cause.

THE ACTION OF

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is Two-fold and Specific ; on the one hand increasing the principle which constitutes Nervous Energy ; and on the other the most powerfull Blood and Flesh-generating Agent known ; therefore a Marvellous Medicine for Renovating Impaired and Broken-down or Exhausted Constitutions, making the recipient as vigorous as if nature had never been retarded or debilitated.

AN ALARMING FACT.

Tens of Thousands of the people of India are to-day dying from the effects of Brain-disease, Dyspepsia or Disordered Liver, which sap the springs of life. The results of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of enjoyment and usefulness, as it ought to be. There is not any good reason for this, seeing the united testimony of a great number of sufferers establish that DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE is superior to any Medicine yet discovered for the cure of Nervous and Mind Diseases, Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints in all their varied forms. The promptness and certainty of its action is such that when the fire of life seems to be dying out in the system, and the mind sympathising with the body is reduced almost to a state of imbecility, this mighty Restorative, by a few doses, seems as it were to lift the sufferer out of the slough of despond, and recruit and reinvigorate both the frame and the intellect.

TWENTY YEARS' PUBLIC TEST

Prove these facts unimpeachable, being fully borne out by thousands of testimonials from every nation and country in the world, freely offered by distinguished families, private persons, military, naval, scientific, and professional men who are well known, and who have experienced from its use all the benefits here indicated.

Dr. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE is sold in Bottles at 4s. 6d. and 11s., by all Export, Wholesale and Retail Medicine Vendors throughout the World.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—NONE IS GENUINE UNLESS the name DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE, LONDON, ENGLAND, is blown in the glass of each Bottle, and every Bottle bears the Government Stamp, with the words DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE, LONDON, ENGLAND, engraved thereon by Order of Her Majesty's Honourable Commissioners ; IF NOT, IT IS A FORGERY, AND YOU HAVE BEEN IMPOSED ON BY A WORTHLESS IMITATION.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS IMITATIONS THAT MAY EMANATE FROM AUSTRALIA.

SPARKLING HIPPOCRENE.

The true, the blushful Hippocrene.

KEATS.

THIS unique beverage—the latest result of the application of the principles of modern science to the laws of health,—combines the strengthening and exhilarating properties of Iron and Phosphorus with the most delicate and agreeable flavor, and stands without an equal as the most exquisite Non-Alcoholic drink extant.

The greatest care has been taken to exhibit the tonic and strengthening elements in HIPPOCRENE in Nature's own manner and Nature's own proportions, so as to admit of its being taken in large or small quantities, by persons of all ages and both sexes, sustaining the robust, strengthening the delicate and maintaining the powers of both body and mind in the highest state of efficiency—to this fact is attributable the marked success which HIPPOCRENE has attained wherever it has had a trial.

It has received the special approval of the Medical Faculty.

We recommend for General Consumption the DRY quality of HIPPOCRENE, which for appearance, flavour, and exhilarating qualities can be safely placed in competition with high-class Champagne.

Price per dozen in Champagne Reputed Pints, Rs. 4-8.

SHERIFF'S PROCLAMATION.

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY.

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION.

SUIT NO. 226 OF 1880.

DINSHAW EDULJEE LAM and BURJORJEE DINSHAW LAM, both of Bombay, Parsee inhabitants, residing at Khetwady, in the Island of Bombay, outside the Fort.....Plaintiffs.

vs.

HEERJEEBHOY BURJORJEE VACHA and SOLABHOY BURJORJEE VACHA, both of Bombay, Parsee inhabitants, residing at Khetwady, in the Island of Bombay, outside the Fort.....Defendants.

WHEREAS by a decree made in the above suit on the 15th day of June, 1880, it was ordered that the Defendants should pay to the Plaintiffs the sum of Rupees five thousand two hundred and twenty-five, annas twelve and pies seven for debt and interest, and the sum of Rupees four hundred and fifty-eight and annas four for costs, which said debt, interest and costs amount together to the sum of Rupees five thousand six hundred and eighty-four and pies seven, and further simple interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date of the said decree until payment.

AND WHEREAS by a warrant of sale, dated the 25th day of April, 1881, the Sheriff of Bombay was directed to sell the right, title and interest of the Defendant, Heerjeebhoy Burjorjee Vacha, in the lands and premises in the said warrant mentioned being his undivided share or interest in all that piece or parcel of ground together with messuages, dwelling houses, godowns, hereditaments and premises containing by admeasurement 2389 square yards or thereabouts, and registered by the Collector of Land Revenue under Nos. 4,836 and 4,857, new survey No. 1638, assessed by the Municipality of Bombay under No. 6, all which premises situate on the east side of Apollo Street, within the Fort in registration sub-district of Fort and Colaba in Bombay, and are bounded on or towards the east by Marine Street, on or towards the west by the said Apollo Street, on or towards the north by a public passage called Bombay green, and on or towards the south by the property of Framjee Cowasjee Marker, and have for some years past been in the occupation of Messrs. Craigie, Lynch, and Owen, Solicitors, and other tenants.

NOW it is HEREBY PROCLAIMED and NOTIFIED that on SATURDAY, the 1st day of October, 1881, at the hour of 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the Sheriff of Bombay will under and by virtue of the said Warrant of sale put up for sale by PUBLIC AUCTION on the premises to the highest bidder, and without reserve the right, title and interest of the said Defendant, Heerjeebhoy Burjorjee Vacha, in the said lands and premises or in so much thereof as may be necessary for the satisfaction of the said Decree.

Intimation is given that the Court does not warrant the correctness of the above description of the premises nor the title of the said Defendant Heerjeebhoy Burjorjee Vacha to the same or any interest therein.

Should the said Heerjeebhoy Burjorjee Vacha have no saleable interest whatever in any lot to be sold in accordance with this Proclamation any sum paid by the purchaser by way of bail or part payment for the same will be repayable to the purchaser.

The abovementioned Plaintiffs have permission to bid at the sale.

Of the price of each lot one-fourth shall be paid forthwith when the lot is knocked down to a purchaser, the remainder of the purchase money must be paid in each case by the purchaser to the Sheriff on or before the fifteenth day after the sale.

The sale will not become absolute until confirmed by the Court.

In default of payment in whole or in part as above prescribed, any sum paid as deposit will be forfeited to the Government, and the lot will be sold free from any interest therein or in the proceeds thereof of the prior purchaser.

For further information and conditions of sale application should be made at the offices of the Sheriff.—Dated this 26th day of August, 1881.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

RE-NUMBERING OF O

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 26.

THE advance in the Bank of England rate of discount from 3 to 4 per cent. advised in the telegrams to hand this morning, cannot be any matter for surprise, considering the nature of the advices we have been receiving for some days past. Notwithstanding considerable withdrawals of gold for America, the New York Exchange continued steadily to decline, and the drain for other quarters has also been considerable; the decrease in the Bullion, as shown by the weekly Bank statement, being £800,000. It may be that the rise of one per cent. in a week may be sufficient to check the demand for Gold, and some people here are distinctly of that opinion, more especially as the outside market rates are only quoted at 3¾ per cent. for 3 months and 4 per cent. on 4 months' paper; but, to our thinking, the simultaneous advance in the Bank of France rate to 4 per cent. is somewhat ominous, as showing that there is also an apprehension in Paris of withdrawals of Gold; and until we see something further of the position, people on this side, we think, would do well to lay their account for a possible increase to 5 per cent.

As might have been expected, Consols come ⅛ lower at 99⅝; but French Rentes are unchanged at 117½, and the Indian 3½ per cent. Sterling Loan at 103. Rupee paper, however, shows a decline of ¼ in Fours, whilst Fours-and-a-half still remain at 90¾. Private quotations, though, are said to be ¼ lower in both instances.

In the General-Produce markets Coffee is unchanged; Cocoanut-Oil again 10s. per ton higher. Wheat is firm with a further rise of 6d. to 1s. per quarter in London quotations. Seeds unchanged.

The Manchester Piece-goods market is reported by Reuter very flat, although we do not hear of any lower prices through private channels. In Liverpool Cotton closed dull yesterday at previous prices all round, the day's sales being estimated at 8,000 bales. In New York ready Mid-Uplands are unchanged at 12⅛ cents., November shipment at 10·87 cents. per lb. The receipts at the U. S. ports to date give the following comparisons:—

	1881.	1880.	1879
Thursday's Receipts	6,000	2,500	400
Six days' do.	27,000	13,200	3,600
Total since 1st Sept	5,772,400	4,953,100	4,442,900

EXCHANGE.—With Bar Silver in London quoted again 1-16d. higher at 51¼d., and the rise in the Bank of England rate, the market here to-day has again been very firm, with more sellers than buyers at a further advance of 1-16d. per rupee, closing quotations being:—

Bank Bills on demand	..1s. 7 29-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic.. ..	..1s. 7 29-32 to ¼d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight..	..1s. 8d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,, ..	..1s. 8 7-32d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,, ..	..1s. 8 9-32d.	,,
Francs 3 ,, ,, ..	..2 13⅛	,,

On Calcutta demand drafts are quoted at 1-16 per cent. premium, 60 days' sight at ⅜ to ½ per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has shown increased weakness during the day; the advance in the Bank rate at home, the continued firmness of money here, and apprehensions of an unfavourable result of the approaching settlement on 1st September, all combining to render holders very anxious sellers. Fours opened at Rs. 100¼, but immediately gave way to par, at which they close quite nominal, with sellers, but no buyers. Fours-and-a-half are also nominal at Rs. 109½, but are rather more firmly held.

SHARES, although quiet, are comparatively steady for everything except Spinning and Weaving Companies, in which our rates show a further general decline of Rs. 10, Colaba Mill and Land Company being Rs. 20 lower at Rs. 940. Bank of Bombays are nominally unchanged at Rs. 727½.

COTTON continues dull, but without practical change in values. Exporters, however, are quite out of the market for the time being, operators at home being doubtless deterred from doing anything by the heavy receipts at the American ports, and the consequent depression in Liverpool.

SEEDS show no quotable change, but WHEAT continues strong, with a large business doing, both ready and forward, at Rs. 3½ per candy for Soft White, and other descriptions in proportion.

FREIGHTS continue firm, with a moderate business doing, especially for future shipment, considerable engagements having again been made for Trieste and Venice. No fresh charters are reported, but several steamers have been under negotiation during the day at higher rates.

PIECE-GOODS show no change which can be quoted. The dealers are not anxious to operate extensively during the existing holiday season, and with present accounts from home, they have no great inducement to do so.

COALS are pretty steady but with very little doing the previous discrepancy betwixt buyers' and sellers' ideas still prevailing.

TELEGRAMS.

REPORTED DIFFICULTIES OF AYOUB KHAN.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)
SIMLA, AUGUST 26.

Reports from Kandahar say that Ayoub's force has much diminished, and that six eight regiments do not number more than four hundred men each, of whom the Kabulis are discontented. Ayoub has sent more small arms, tents, stores, and money towards Herat. Ayoub's attempt to raise the Durani horse has failed.

AYOUB KHAN'S PREPARATIONS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
ALLAHABAD, AUGUST 26.

Ayoub Khan is actively engaged in collecting supplies of all sorts, and has forbidden all export of grain or fruit either towards Kabul or India. Camels are being impressed in large numbers for the use of his troops.

Atta Mahomed, a well-known commissariat contractor in Kandahar, and Moollah Mahomed Sadik, the guardian of the shrine of the Kirkabi Sharif, who were imprisoned by Ayoub, have been released after paying heavy fines.

Mirza Abdul Majid, who was very useful in collecting supplies for us, is said to be still in prison.

It is reported that Ayoub has sent messengers to Kabul to suggest peace with the Amir. Everything continues quiet, both on and beyond the frontier.

AFFAIRS IN AFGHANISTAN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
LAHORE, AUGUST 26.

News from Quetta published here by the Civil and Military Gazette is to the effect that the Amir's advance guard has reached Kelat, and the Amir is following close behind.

Ayoub does not gain supporters, and is forbidding the export of fruit and grain from Kandahar, and apparently preparing for flight to Herat.

THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORSHIP OF THE PUNJAB.

The report is again current that Mr. Aitchison succeeds Sir Robert Egerton as the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab.

THE PUNJAB UNIVERSITY.

A telegram received from the Secretary of State for India reports that the Punjab University is to be raised to the full status of a University. A Bill for the purpose will be immediately introduced in the Legislative Council.

THE GAZETTE OF INDIA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
SIMLA, AUGUST 26.

Surgeon Moran has been appointed Civil Surgeon of Akola in Berar, vice Surgeon Hume, transferred to Amraoti.

The personal distinction of Khan Bahadur conferred on Framjee Nusserwanjee during his tenure of office as Deputy Collector of Nasik is to be continued.

Captain Ashfield, Bombay Staff Corps, has been appointed Assistant Commissioner of Mhow.

Colonel Trevor, V. C., Director-General of Railways, has been appointed to officiate as Secretary to the Government of India in the Public Works Department.

CHARGE OF CRIMINAL INTIMIDATION AGAINST A DEWAN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
CALCUTTA, AUGUST 26.

The charge of criminal intimidation preferred by Mr. Tayler, on behalf of Raja Lilanund Sing, against Bhoobun Chandra Roy, has been dismissed by the Deputy Magistrate, who pronounced his decision to-day (the 26th) to avoid detention of counsel, but will give a written judgment on Monday. The decision has given universal satisfaction.

The case took twelve days in hearing, and it is supposed to have cost both sides upwards of Rs. 20,000.

THE Pioneer hears that Ayoub Khan has sent emissaries to Colonel St. John.

THE Bishop of Calcutta, who is said to have recovered completely from his recent indisposition, arrived at Shillong last Friday evening. His Lordship was to be the guest of the Chief Commissioner—who has just returned from a provincial tour—during his stay at Shillong, which was expected to extend over six days.

THE Government of India in the Military Department, under instructions from the Secretary of State, has notified that admissions to the Staff Corps on probation, on and after the 1st of July last, are subject to regulations to be made hereafter concerning pay and promotion.

AFTER a protracted downpour of rain in Central India, a break in the weather has occurred, which was much needed for the crops. It is reported that the railway line near Satkunda was washed away on the evening of the 20th instant, and through traffic with Chitor interrupted. The road was repaired, and through traffic resumed on the morning of the 22nd idem.

THE marriage is announced, on the 2nd inst., of Mr. Justice Pontifex, of the High Court of Calcutta, to the widow of the late Mr. J. W. Gribble, B. C. S., Postmaster-General of Bengal. Mrs. Gribble was one of the beauties of Lord Lytton's Viceregal Court.

THE Rajah of Mundi, who has a tea garden, under native superintendence, sent a consignment of tea to Calcutta, where it fetched the extraordinary price of 4 annas and 6 pies per pound.

MR. FISHER, Magistrate of Meerut, filed a suit on August 18 in the court of Mr. Muir, Joint-Magistrate of that station, against Mr. Fanthome and Pundit Gunga Ram, under Section 182 of the Indian Penal Code. That section relates to the giving of false information to a public servant, with the object of causing him to use his lawful power to the injury of some person. The case came on, but was postponed.

A VERNACULAR newspaper published in Delhi states that the notorious outlaw Meo Khan, for whose arrest both the British authorities and the Alwar Durbar have offered a considerable reward, recently cut the telegraph wire near the Barwara station, in Alwar territory. He also left there a letter threatening to continue his depredations, as his property had all been confiscated. This is the man who, with four others, shot two constables at Ferozepore in the Gurgaon district, in April last, and it is to be hoped that the endeavours now being made to effect his capture will be successful.

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF PATIALA has presented Rs. 25,000 to the Punjab University College, in commemoration of his first visit to Lahore, on the occasion of the late Viceregal Durbar. His Highness has requested that the money may be utilised in the following manner :—The interest on Rs. 10,000 to be expended on Gurmukhi teaching and scholarships ; the interest on Rs. 5,000 to be given in scholarships to students passing the Gazani examination, or in the event of there being none such, the interest to be added to the amount of the Gurmukhi scholarships ;—the interest on the remaining Rs. 10,000 to be utilised for the general benefit of the college.

IT is rumoured at Simla, the Lahore paper says, that the Hon'ble Whitley Stokes, C. S. I., C. I. E., Member of the Viceregal Council, means to leave India in November next, although the full period of his tenure of office will not terminate till April, 1882. It is also said that Mr. Stokes proposes not only visiting the continent of America, but actually taking up his abode altogether on the other side of the Atlantic. His Simla residence, "The Myth," has been purchased for a considerable sum, with the whole of the handsome furniture, &c., by Brigadier-General G. Leslie, Inspector of Royal Artillery in India.

THE members of the Council of the Western India Rifle Association should read an article in the Madras Mail on the subject of "Defects of the Martini-Henry Rifle." We extract the following passage :—"The chief objection to the Martini-Henry is that, while the barrel is ·45 bore, that of the chamber is ·577, causing a great diminution of the force of the explosion. It stands to reason that the check it receives before forcing itself into the narrower aperture robs the bullet of one-fourth its impetus....The original Martini-Henry had an even bore, but the difficulty of extraction decided the authorities in making the ruinous alteration, so much so that at the longest distances, 800, 900, and 1,000 yards, the shooting is at times irregular, and Sir Henry Halford refused to open the Graphic Prize at Wimbledon to 'any military breach-loader,' on the ground that the Martini stood very little chance in 'any M. B. L.' competitions."

AN instance of penny wise and pound foolish policy is reported from Amritsar. A large part of the Amritsar jail, very soon after it was built, fell down. The Lahore paper says the position of the jail had doubtless something to do with it, but the real reason may probably be found in the fact that the jail was built of sun-dried bricks, contrary to the expressed opinions, and notwithstanding the protest of, General Maclagan and the engineers under him, who, knowing that the soil of Amritsar was unsuited to sun-dried bricks, suggested burnt bricks. This was at first agreed to by the Punjab Government, but afterwards thrown aside on account of the cost. The failure of the jail, therefore, must be held to be the direct result of the decision of the Punjab Government in insisting on the use of sun-dried bricks, notwithstanding the remonstrances of their engineer officers.

THE Allahabad High Court has decided the Mirzapore cow case. An application was made for revision of an order of Mr. Cadell, the Magistrate of Mirzapore, dated the 4th of July, relative to a cow, the property of one Akbar Ali Khan, a Mahomedan resident of that [illegible] some time in November last, sent by their master to drive a cow to the slaughter-house. On their way they were accosted by some Hindus, who asked them whither they were taking the animal, and upon being informed, the Hindus seized the cow and took it away. For this they were subsequently charged before the Magistrate of Mirzapore, Mr. Dale, who sentenced them to a term of three months' rigorous imprisonment. He also passed an order directing that the cow should be delivered to Akbar Ali Khan, upon the condition that he would not slaughter it. Subsequently application was made to Mr. Cadell, who had succeeded Mr. Dale as Magistrate, for the reversion of the prohibition, and upon the 4th of July last he made the order recalling it, which was the subject of the present application to the High Court. The case came on, on Tuesday, and the Bench, consisting of the Hon'ble Justices Straight and Tyrrell, held that they could not consider the petition of the Hindus against Mr. Cadell's order ; as Mr. Cadell's order was passed under Section 518 of the Criminal Procedure Code, and orders under this section are not open to revision in the High Court.

THE Indian Daily News remarks that Sir Donald Stewart has now for some time been in command of the Indian Army ; and, as usual, there has been a number of courts-martial. On looking over these, we have been struck with a peculiarity adopted by the Commander-in-Chief. As far as we can recollect, His Excellency has not "approved" of a single sentence. He has confined himself to simply "confirming" the decision of the courts. Now, this peculiarity gives rise to various speculations. If Sir Donald Stewart cannot "approve" the sentences of courts-martial, it seems to us that, for the sake of discipline, and in justice to the courts, he is bound so to indicate his reasons as to enable the courts to come up to the standard of duty which may commend itself to him. It does not read well before regiments to find the approval of the Commander-in-Chief so invariably withheld. In fact, we do not hesitate to say that discipline must suffer from the Commander-in-Chief's act. It gives rise to the idea, that there is something about the courts-martial which he does not approve, and this idea is sure to be interpreted in the wrong way, by the men on whom courts-martial are supposed to have a deterrent effect. It may be that the sentences err on the score of leniency, or perhaps they are too severe. But, in any case, we think the Commander-in-Chief is bound to let the army know why he confines himself to "confirming" sentences only.

OCCASIONAL papers on missionary subjects, edited by members of the Oxford Mission, are about to be published in Calcutta. Six papers are being prepared, or are already in hand on the following subjects :—The Relation between Christianity and Hinduism ; Brahmoism, is it for or against Christianity ? the Revision of the Urdu Prayer Book ; Urdu Translations of the Lord's Prayer ; S. Athanasius' Method of dealing with the Heathen ; the Sacramental System of the Church ; the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity ; the Catechetical School of Alexandria ; the Minor Offices of the Church of Malabar ; on the Doctrine of the Atonement ; S. Clement of Alexandria's Method with the Heathen ; "Vocation" to Mission Work. It is hoped that the first number will be ready early in October. Subject ; "The Relation between Christianity and Hinduism," by the Rev. K. M. Banerjea, D. L. THE special committee on mountain batteries, which has been sitting at Simla during the last three months, was to close its proceedings on the 20 h. The Civil and Military Gazette states that many and very important changes and improvements have been suggested, including the equipment and dress of all mountain batteries in India. The desire of Government that reduction of expenditure might be recommended, the committee were unable to comply with ; on the contrary, it is considered that, in order to render mountain batteries more thoroughly efficient, the necessity of an increase of establishment has[illegible] out. The President, Brig[illegible]aves India shortly on t[illegible]ns Robertson and Aitkin[illegible] teries almost immediat[illegible]

THE Pioneer makes its Naini Tal correspondent, writing on the 19th August, state that "Midhat Pasha and his colleagues are on their way to Mecca ; and Mahomed Ruchdi Pasha, who was Grand Vizier at the time of the alleged assassination, has been sent to join them. There are to be no executions, unless, indeed, transportation is not tantamount to that." There is a good deal also about Mr. Bradlaugh's case, Lord Hartington, the Northbrook Indian Society meeting, and other items of English news received by the last mail. Readers may find it a little puzzling at first ; but a careful investigation will show that the fact is, not that the Pioneer receives its English intelligence specially by way of Naini Tal, but that the compositors had managed, with an ingenuity of which only Indian compositors could be capable, to tack on to the Naini Tal correspondent's letter the fag end of a communication from a London writer on "European Politics," the first part of which appears in another page of the same issue.

REFERRING to the letters which we have lately published on the subject of the death-rate in Bombay, the Statesman remarks :—"Judging from our own experience, we should think that bad sanitation is the real cause, and it seems to us that from the 'lay of the land' good sanitation should be a much easier matter there than in Calcutta. We trust that the attention now being directed to this important subject may lead to its being taken up vigorously and sensibly, and that the reproach will soon be removed from Bombay, of its being a very unhealthy city."

AT the inquest held at Shanghai on the 27th July on the body of William George Scott, late Commander of H. M. S. Lapwing, who died from the effects of "a gunshot wound" on the 21st instant, the jury, after a short deliberation, found "that Captain William George Scott died by his own hand, when in a state of temporary insanity, induced by intense nervous excitement, caused by anxiety in connection with the trial of the Hochung and Lapwing collision case."

THERE arrived at Hongkong on the 2nd instant, from the north the celebrated Mah Taotai, one of the protéges of H. E. Li Hung Chang, who is on his way to India on a special mission regarding opium.

THE Australian papers report that a Mr. Littleton has been murdered by the natives of the South Sea Islands, they having had disputes with him about the ownership of certain land on the island of New Britain. H.M.S. Conflict is reported to have visited the island, and to have hanged three natives for the murder. The native, of New Britain have also made hostile demonstrations against the white inhabitants of the island and others resident there, and the latter, believing their lives to be in danger, made common cause against the islanders and attacked them, killing about 50, and wounding others. No whites were killed in the encounter. The Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Romilly, has since visited New Britain in the schooner Beagle, and has justified the proceedings of the whites.

HIS HIGHNESS THE NIZAM'S HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND TRAINING.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
HYDERABAD, AUGUST 21.

HIS HIGHNESS THE NIZAM is now enjoying excellent health and strength, and is more lively than he has been for a long time past ; he is fond of horse riding and athletic exercises, he is a good shot with the rifle, and is particularly fond of lawn-tennis. This improvement in His Highness's health and habits is all the more gratifying, as he had long been weak and in indifferent health. The weakness, however, was owing, not to any feebleness of constitution, but to the want of careful supervision over His Highness's domestic habits on the part of those to whose guardianship the young Nizam's mental, moral, and physical training was entrusted. In consequence of this neglect, and through the influence of evil associates, the youthful Prince had unfortunately acquired some dissipated habits. Free access to the Zenana and a penchant for the wine-cup, in a lad of fifteen years of age, necessarily did great mischief to a constitution not naturally robust ; and the result was such a change for the worse in the appearance of the young Nizam, that it was noticed by the late Resident, Sir Richard Meade, and others at a public entertainment. The Resident made careful inquiry into the causes of such physical deterioration, and having found them out, reported the matter to the Government of India, by whom it was brought to the notice of the Secretary of State.

Such laxity of supervision on the part of H. H's guardians was certainly without excuse and most reprehensible, when it is remembered that besides their Excellencies Sir Salar Jung and the Ameer-i-Kabeer (who, I believe, are his chief guardians, the latter noble being also nearly related to H. H.), there is a very highly paid staff of English men in the Government employ who are entertained for the special superintendence of His Highness's moral and physical training, as well as for his scholastic advancement. There are a Superintendent of Education on Rs. 3,000 a month, a tutor on Rs. 1,200, and a host of learned Moulvies on high salaries ; yet with such a staff of supervision, so great had been the laxness of all concerned, that had it not been for the prompt action taken by Sir Richard Meade so soon as the feeble condition of His Highness had come to his knowledge, it is not too much to say that H.H.'s health might soon have been so much shattered, that recovery would have been almost hopeless. Fortunately, Sir Richard dealt with the case very summarily ; he insisted on the young Nizam's immediate removal to a separate palace far removed from the Zenana, and saw that efficient arrangements were made for the proper care and training of His Highness at his present residence, the "Poorana Havalee." The Government having thus been aroused to a sense of their duty, bestirred themselves, and the male and female servants who had surreptitiously supplied the Prince with intoxicating liquor were sent away twenty-eight miles from Hyderabad, and imprisoned in the fortress of Boughere.

To these salutary measures on the part of Sir Richard Meade must be attributed the wonderful change in His Highness's health I have noted above. His Excellency the Minister relieved himself of some of the onus of the charge of laxness by throwing a portion of the responsibility upon the co-regent, the Ameer-i-Kabeer, who, it is stated, in times past, had more than once placed obstacles in the way of carrying out arrangements proposed by the Minister for the better training of His Highness. Had Lord Lytton still governed India, the severest notice would doubtless have been taken of the great injury done to the young Nizam by the gross laxness of his guardians. As matters stand, however, the Minister and all connected with H. H.'s training have been taught a lesson which, it is hoped, they will not readily forget. Both the Marquis of Hartington and Lord Ripon have expressed to the Hyderabad Government their grave displeasure at what has happened, and have further observed that, as the Minister and all concerned seem at last to have been aroused to the responsibilities of their duties in regard to the care of the young prince, the Supreme Government would refrain from enquiring too strictly into past neglects, but they gave a warning that any future dereliction of duty would not be so easily overlooked.

THE MACPHERSON MEMORIAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—There is a growing opinion that the Memorial Committee has made a mistake in proposing that any of the funds subscribed should be used for the purchase of a library for the Young Men's Christian Association, as the young men are quite able to pay for their own books, and ought, for very shame, to decline to receive public alms for that purpose.

The Orphanage is deeply involved, and while that is so not a penny should be diverted for the delectation of the young gentlemen who have already received such singular benefits from their association with the good men. The Sunday School Library is very badly supplied, and many of the scholars are children of poor parents, who cannot afford to buy books. I am sure many will withhold their subscriptions, unless a desire is shown to apply the funds in a manner more suitable to the occasion, than the purchase of a library for those who can afford to buy their own light literature.

THE DEATH-RATES OF BOMBAY AND CALCUTTA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I have been noticing for several weeks past, from the mortality returns published in your paper, that the death-rate in (sic) Bombay is nearly double that of Calcutta. In your issue of the 25th you quote a paragraph from a Calcutta paper, in which the number of deaths registered in that city up to the week ending 13th August is stated to be 212 ; and in your local column of to-day you say that the deaths in Bombay for the week ending 23rd August were 476. Either these are misprints, or there has been some mistake in the published returns. The population of Calcutta is greater than that of this city, (sic) and it is a well-known fact that the City of Palaces is a much unhealthier place than this. Having only recently come out to India, I am not aware what has been the average mortality either here or in Calcutta all along, but having lived in Vienna, where the population and death-rate are pretty much the same as in Bombay, it appears to me that 400 a week is a likely figure for this city, which, considering its situation ought to be quite as healthy a place as the Austrian capital. If, however, the figures you have recently published are correct, our Municipal Council ought to do something to remedy our defective sanitation, or those of us who value existence must emigrate to Calcutta, where the chances of dying are only half as great as in Bombay.—I am, &c.

HEALTH.

Bombay, 26th August.

The population of Calcutta in 1876 was 423,535. Bombay in 1872 had a population of 641,405 ; in 1881 it is about 770,000. We have not the figures of the Calcutta census for 1881, but believe the increase since 1876 has not been proportionate to the increase in Bombay.—ED. B. G.

THE SLOW CAR AND SINFULLY-SLEEPMUCH RAILWAY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

DEER MISTER EDITER,—It be now gettin on a futnight agone, or moor, that I fust seed a harticle wi' th' above titel in yore hestimable journal. Bein as how I war hintrested in th' subjick, I hed thocht to ha' guv yo my own voo o' th' affair stret off, d'reckly I ha' read it. But thik salubrius part o' th' Empire ha' bin tew much fur me, as it allus bee's at th' annal repitition o' th' grat Deluj, an in conserkence I ha' bin flat on my back fur three wo'fu weeks. Howsomediver if I be not tew late, an yo'll be so kind as to lev me, i'll hoffer a few remarks now.

Thok co-respondent o' yourn be a rare un wi's pen, an mun be a reglar prose pote. Giv he tuck to perducing rummunces, as folk clept them novels in my younger days, he'd mak a grat name an fortin. I be main greeted tho' to see thet he hev not thet gineral nowledge as a mon suld hev i' thik hadvanced hepock. Th' lad ha' gotten notions anent Lucummutive Injins thok be more pitteresque thin akkerate, an I feel it my dooty to enlighten him on a foo pints. Iz power o' discription be gradely, tho' ee dunnut knaw th' abbits o' th' native tatto. Thok war wi'out doubt a fine climax when th' nigger drew iz cheese-parer to mak the beastie scurry. But lor, Sir, nothin under th' largest packet o' Bryant an May, full blaze, will get them dauk brutes into a jog trot. Ah ! yo're co. mun be either a young un isself, or else ee thinks the rest o' creation under seven.

Th' reflekshins ee casts on a 'ardworkin an 'ardworked lot o' chaps suld be kep fur a Parsee-moneyous Guvernmint. As to iz remarks on our banjo-playin Injineer wi' th' grivvance, why its reglar downright envy. But thin, as I sed before, ee's a Prose Pote, an what summun menshins about the chap "as 'as no muzick in iz sole" is, I'm afeered, ony too applecable in iz case. Why, giv ee 'ad iver 'eerd thok Injineer a playin thok listefment what ee scoffs at, ee mun ha feeled thok, owiver grat ee isself mote be at prose potery, ee warn't in same stret wi' Injineer at keppin up iz pals' peckers. Howsomediver, to fall back on my mutton, which I used to be telled at our old debatin sersiety at whum, means returnin to the subjick in han. Well, I wants to explain to yore pote thok it ain't th' Injin as does the bumpin as stirred iz octiput into th' rummancin vain, but that it's th' old-fashunned loose cuplins an things what dusnut give th' Motive Power a chance to git a fair grip on 'em. Giv my nek wer'n't a valyble property, I'ud like to git yore co. behint th' firebox an let im try th' sinsation o' goin wi' full pressure at 50 mile an hour. I bet ee 'ud look preshus like a Camel Lion wi' pale green as th' perdorminatin' color.

Fro h'inturnul h'eviduence, as th' kritiks say, it seems to me thok th' lad mun be a h'aspirant, what a Baboon frien o' mine cleps them young nigger scrawlers in th' orfices. I dunnut mean thok ee be a buddin Baboon, but thok ee 'opes to ha'iz fingers one day in Guvurnmint pie. I 'ope ee will, give so be by then ee gits sinse an experience to put a bend to th' narrow gauge, as well as to stick up fences, an not hoffer a prumium to t'old chap wi' th' scythe by lettin rovin Biles an Gotes gallopede on th' metals. The kin o' regretful way your co. talks about th' old times, when A. G. G.'s an assistants o' all sorts went caravanserying about wi' long trains o' elephans an osses an camels, maks me think as how ee 'ull be summat o' same sort isself. Howsomediver, as it's no good a borrowin rajas' menageries fur goin by rail, why dunnut they give th' Dusky Swells a hint to kep a speshal o' Pullman Driving Carriages ? An if they want to rival them komits as as bin a flyin around, an seemingly a makin o' em envious, why don't they mak the Royal puppets a give up more soil an coin ? Wi a leetle persuasion they could soon git a well fenced broad gauge, as well as a [illegible] o' th' best buildin timber for firewood free o' cost. Thin giv I'ad a big Injin as an open firebox, an wore a Brennan's elmet an coal, I'd guarantee 'em a trip as brilliunt an more destructive than any known. As to things is, the furrests is a gettin less an bootifully lesser, which some folk say will in conserkwence be the same wi' the rain, tho' there's no sign 'o thet yet, save'n back.

Well, as I was sayin, gif them [illegible] an buddin swells, on'y borrowed them Pullman kars, wi' all applinces as enplins esteerer compleat, ther'd be no bumpin. An that 'ud be a comfort to many on us. It ain't no joke to a pore devil (excus langwidge, but my feelins is too much) on Rs. 30 a month, when a Pote gits iz locks shaken, or a fair creetur's back 'air comes down wi' a run, to have the ony viols o' manageriel wroth a 'urled at iz devoted 'ed, as well as 'avin to fork out ten breadwinnin dibs. No, Mr. Editer, I 'ope in yore kindness ye will look at the pore man's voo as well as the fancy picter o' th' pote, an lev thik 'eer expiunashun ha a small spase o' your valyble columbs ; and gif so be yo come round this line, I'ull smuggle yo on the hinjin, when yo wunna be hef so much bunged as in them shaky kerridges.—Yours Grimly Grumpy,

A PORE DRIVER.

VESSELS ARRIVED.—The following vessels arrived yesterday :—Venetes (s), from Sydney ; Trentham Hall (s), Liverpool ; Great Northern (s).

VESSELS SAILED.—The following vessels sailed yesterday :—Euphrates (s), to Kurrachee ; Fearnought, Rangoon ; Clan Fraser (s), Kurrachee ; Rosetta (s), China.

SERVICE ON BOARD THE BRITANNIA.—The Bishop of Bombay is to preach on Sunday evening on board the s. s. Britannia at 6·30.

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s. s. Florence and Trentham Hall entered, and the s. s. Clan Fraser left the dock yesterday.

STREET ACCIDENT.—Mahadoo Govind, a reckla- driver, was thrown from his seat by a collision with a shigram ; the wheel of his reckla passed over his left leg, and caused a compound fracture.

SENT TO THE REFORMATORY.—A Hindoo lad aged fourteen years, named Dugdia Nagoo, was yesterday convicted by Mr. P. Ryan of stealing a silver watch, valued at Rs. 15, the property of Soman Boodoo. He was ordered to be sent to the Sassoon Reformatory.

A POLICE OFFICER REWARDED.—Inspector Homes, in charge of the Parell section, has been presented with a gold watch (through the Commissioner of Police) by Mr. Hormusjee Ardaseer Wadia for his exertions in connection with a theft recently committed at the Lowjee Castle, Parell.

RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY.—Jao Manuel Fernandes, a toddy-drawer, was yesterday convicted by Mr. P. Ryan of dishonestly receiving a silver waistchain, valued at Rs. 30, belonging to Nicholo Lobe Jao Lobe, knowing the same to be stolen property. He was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.—Two noted characters named Sulliman Moosa and Alybhoy Ismail were yesterday convicted by Mr. W. Webb of being found loitering at night on the Bhendy Bazar-road, and failing to render a satisfactory account of themselves, they being reputed thieves. They were each sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment.

CRIMINAL TRESPASS.—Yesterday, at the Girgaum Police Court, John DeCruzo appeared before Mr. P. Ryan to answer a charge of criminal trespass preferred against him by Framjee Aderjee Mistry. Mr. Balcrishna, of Messrs. Balcrishna and Bhugwandas, solicitors, appeared for the prosecution. The defendant, it appears, entered the verandah of complainant's house at Durga-street, Upper Mahim, during his absence from home, and fixed a padlock over the padlock that was placed by the complainant to fasten the front door. Complainant, on his return, found his door locked with two padlocks, and was about to break it open, when defendant, with others, went towards complainant as if to assault him. The complainant proved that he was the rightful owner of the house and ground. His Worship discharged the defendant, with a warning not to interfere with the complainant's property.

ANOTHER INSTANCE OF CURIOUS RETICENCE.—Another amusing illustration of the extreme unwillingness on the part of certain classes of Hindoos to repeat the names of their wives, similar to that related by us yesterday, was afforded on Thursday last in Mr. Justice West's Court. In the case of Runchordas Canjee vs. Burjorjee Pallonjee Jamjee, now at hearing, a witness named Damjee would not repeat the name of a woman who, he said, was present on a certain occasion at a certain place. The court and examining counsel might have understood the cause of the witness's reluctance if he had been a Parsee ; but the witness before Sir Charles Sargent was asked, to mention the name of his wife. Ookerda Dadjee was asked to repeat the name of a woman with whom he had not to do ; and yet he maintained a stolid silence which would not succeed it. After much interpreter succeeded in getting at the name, which caused much amusement when he [illegible] court. The reason that Ookerda Dadjee declined was that the name of the woman [illegible] nothing to do with was the same as that of his own wife. A Bhattia, it is said, will [illegible] some heavy punishment than lie [illegible] own wife.

ACCIDENTS ON THE H. S. AND N. S. RAILWAY.—On Sunday last two fatal accidents occurred on the Holkar Sindia-Neemuch State Railway, the first of which took place on the branch line between Fatehabad and Ujjain. A middle-aged native, a villager, who appeared to have been under the influence of liquor, was sleeping across the line, and was run over by the mail-train before it could be brought to a stand. His legs and arms suffered the most, and he was conveyed immediately to the Ujjain city hospital, but expired in the course of an hour. The second accident occurred a few miles out of Khera, where a goods-train overtook a young girl and her flock of goats on a bridge ; and although the train was stopped within a very short distance, it was too late to avoid the accident, and the girl, together with a number of goats, were forced into the stream below. The girl sank, and when she finally rose to the surface and was rescued she was extinct.—Pioneer.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.

THE SAFEST AND ONLY RELIABLE

PREPARTION OF PHOSPHORUS.

Multitudes of people are hopelessly suffering from Debility, Nervous and Liver Complaints, Depression of Spirits, Timidity, Indigestion, Lassitude, Want of Power, &c., whose cases admit of a permanent cure by the new remedy, DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE (Ozonic Oxygen), which at once allays all irritation and excitement, imparts new energy and life to the enfeebled constitution, and rapidly cures every stage of these hitherto incurable and distressing maladies.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is the most efficacious medicine hitherto discovered for Weak and Shattered Constitutions, Nervous Debility, Aversion or Incapacity for Study, Indigestion, Female Complaints, Flatulence, Liver Complaints, Shortness of Breath, Pains in the Head, Pimples, Impoverished Blood, and all diseases caused by a long residence in tropical climates, for which iron, mercury, iodide of potass, &c., are given in various forms, often to the destruction of the patient's health.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.—Until the introduction of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, Phosphorus was but seldom prescribed as a medicine, owing to the difficulty in so preparing it that its action could be kept under perfect control. It had been used in Almond and Olive Oils in Sulphuric Ether, in Rectified Alcohol, in Chloroform, and several advertised medicines; but, in all the hitherto known methods of its preparation, certain irregular results have been experienced. But in the form of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, its invaluable action on the human system is realized without any of those drawbacks which other modes of preparation invariably produce.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, is prepared [illegible] PRINCIPLE, by which all possibly

CARLTON WHISKEY
ELEVEN YEARS OLD.
11 years old. 5 years old.
Same as supplied to the Carlton and other London Club Houses.

THESE GRAND OLD WHISKIES are shipped only by RICHARD MATHEWS AND COMPANY, of London and Inverness, who are sole possessors of the Brand "CARLTON." They are distilled from the finest Highland Malt only, are in every respect equal to the finest Brandy, and guaranteed to be entirely free from Fusel Oil or other noxious impurities.

The following Testimonial has been received from the Secretary of the "CARLTON" CLUB.

CARLTON CLUB, 1875,
December 20.

MESSRS. R. MATHEWS & COMPY.

GENTLEMEN,—In reply to your inquiry as to whether the Whiskey you are supplying to this Club is approved by the Members, the best answer I can give is that the consumption of this spirit in the Club has GREATLY INCREASED since it has been supplied by your Firm. There can be no doubt whatever about the Whiskey being MOST EXCELLENT.

It is old and soft, and I may safely say that it is much approved by the Members.

CAUTION.—It has come to the knowledge of the shippers of the "CARLTON" WHISKIES that the empty bottles have been dishonestly refilled with the poisonous trash very often sold in India under the name of Whiskey, this is therefore to caution consumers to carefully examine the Capsules and Corks to see they have not been tampered with; also that the Corks, Capsules, and Labels are branded with Trade Mark.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—REDUCTION IN PRICE.

ZOEDONE FOR INDIA,

A DELICIOUS SPARKLING BEVERAGE FOR DAILY USE.

ZOEDONE

Is Exhilarating, yet Non-alcoholic.
May be taken continuously as a Substitute for Alcoholic Liquors with the most beneficial results.
Will keep good after being opened, and retains its Sparkling Qualities to the last.
May be drunk by persons of every age, and at all times.

Dr. G. S. Ranking, Surgeon, Indian Medical Department, writes of it thus:—"I am of opinion that in 'Zoedone' is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and, while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if 'Zoedone' be introduced into India it will meet all the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous systems without impairing their livers."

From Dr. Lucas, Bombay Medical Department, Author of "The Elements of Indian Hygiene," &c.: "I am of opinion that the invaluable aerated beverage 'Zoedone' deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public; it is not only health-giving drink, but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of iron, lime, potash, and soda, a health-restoring drink par excellence reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes, and canteens. To weakly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, phthisis, &c., the cost at which it is sold should in itself commend 'Zoedone' to the people in India."
